Event Report

Title: Universal Human Value

Speaker: PCCOE Ravet Team

Date: 21/11/2022

Participants: FE year students of NMIET

No. of participants: 322

Description: Universal human values are principles or beliefs that are considered fundamental to human existence and are believed to be inherent across cultures, societies, and individuals. These values transcend geographical, cultural, religious, and ideological boundaries and are often seen as essential for fostering harmonious coexistence and promoting the well-being of individuals and communities. The ability to understand and share the feelings of others, and to act with kindness and concern for their well-being. The concept of treating all individuals impartially and equitably, ensuring that everyone has equal rights and opportunities

Objectives:

1. the objective of universal human values is to create a world where people can live with dignity, respect, and harmony
2. By valuing concepts such as freedom, autonomy, and dignity, universal human values aim to empower individuals to live fulfilling lives

Outcomes: The outcomes of promoting universal human values are multifaceted and encompass various dimensions of individual and societal well-being.
