2.5.1: Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode

Documents for the mechanism of internal assessment are transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode.

The internal assessment process is carried out transparently as a part of the teaching learning process covering assessments for Unit tests, prelim examination, and internal evaluation of laboratory term work, seminars, mini-projects and final year projects. Links given in Table below provide Sample cases of these activities.
