Event Report

Title: Foreign Language

Speaker: Prof. Roopa Paspule on Japanese Language Training

Date: 21/11/2022

Participants: FE year students of NMIET

No. of participants: 322

Description: In an increasingly interconnected and globalized world, the ability to communicate in more than one language has become a valuable skill. This report explores the importance and benefits of learning a foreign language, both from personal and professional perspectives. Learning a foreign language has been shown to enhance cognitive function, including memory, problem-solving skills, and creativity. Students who study a foreign language often perform better in other academic subjects, including mathematics, science, and literacy. In today's globalized economy, multilingualism is a sought-after skill by employers in various industries, including business, healthcare, diplomacy, and technology. Bilingual or multilingual individuals often have a competitive edge in the job market, as they can communicate effectively with colleagues, clients, and partners from diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds

Objectives:

1. The primary objective of learning a foreign language is to be able to communicate effectively with speakers of that language. This includes understanding and being understood in both spoken and written forms
2. Learning a foreign language can be a rewarding personal challenge that enhances cognitive abilities, including memory, problem-solving skills, and creativity. It also promotes adaptability, patience, and perseverance

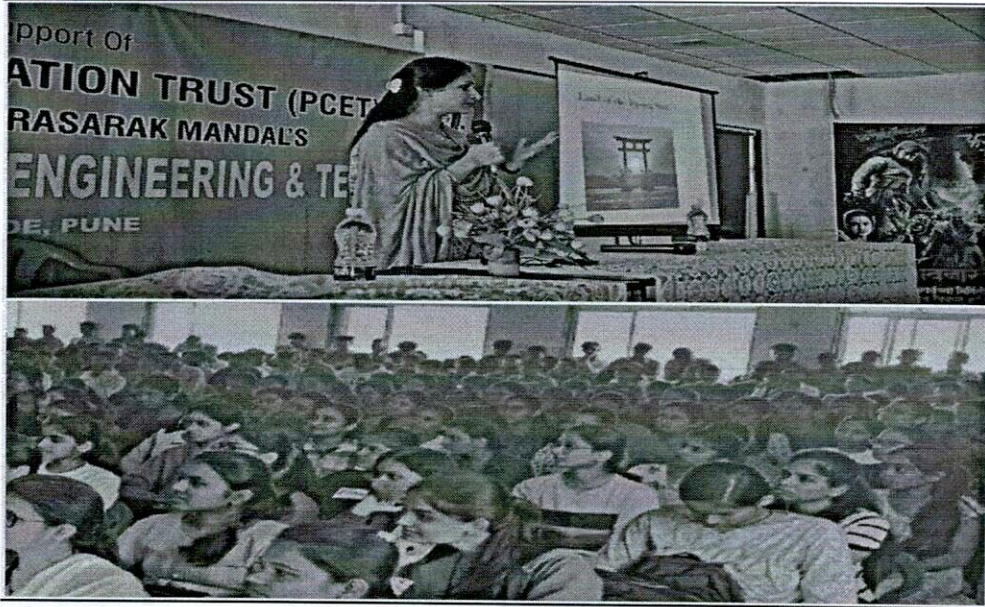

Outcomes: The outcomes of learning a foreign language are diverse and can have a profound impact on individuals' personal, academic, professional, and cultural development.

Fluency in a foreign language is a valuable asset in the global job market, enhancing employability in various fields, including business, diplomacy, healthcare, tourism, and education
